NEW BISHOP FOR VIRGINIA

WAS BORN IN NELSON.

Is Made Unanimous Choice After Harmonious Discussion by Members of Body.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—Rev. William Cabell Brown, D. D., Protestant Episcopal missionary in Southern Brazil, has been elected by the Protestant Episcopal Diocesan Council of Virginia, to be bishop-coadjutor, to assist Rt. Rev. Robert A. Gibson, D. D., bishop of the Diocese of Virginia. There was some debate as to the advisability of going outside the state and the United States to select a man, but there was perfect harmony of feeling through out the discussion.

Rev. W. A. R. Goodwin, formerly of Bruton Parish Church, Williamsburg, now pastor in Rochester, N. Y.; Rev. Thomas C Darst, rector of St. James' Church, Richmond; Rev. W. H. K. Smith, of South Carolina, and Rev. W. D. Smith, D. D., of Winchester, were placed in nomination, in opposition to Dr. Brown, but the first vote showed the South Brazilian missionary the favorite, and his election was declared unanimous.

Dr. Brown is a native Virginian, but has been in the Brazilian missionary field for 20 years. He was born in Nelson cuonty about fifty-five yoars ago. He was educated in the public schools and received his theological training in the Virginia Theological Seminary, at Alexandria. With the Rev. J. W. Morton, now rector of Monumental Church, he went as a missionary to Southern Brazil about twenty-five years ago, and there embarked on a work he is now about to complete. An alien among people speaking a strange tongue, it became one of his first duties to translate the Bible into the Portuguese language, so that the people he was leading could read the Gospel he taught them. The work of translation alone necessitated a tremendous amount of time and pains, but the young missionary set himself to the task with unvarying patience, and the labor was finally finished. The church, offered him a reward by electing him bishop, first of Porto Rico and then to Cuba, but he declined to accept either appointment, prefering to labor still in the field he had chosen. It is said of him that he has achieved great results and that his evangelical work has been widely recognized.

Wednesday, May 20, First day, morning Session.

St James' Church, Richmond, Va.

The 119th annual council of the diocese of Virginia, opened at 10 o'clock in St. James' Church with the regular celebration of the Holy Communion by the Rt. Rev. Robert A. Gibson, the bishop of the diocese. He was assisted by Rev. T. C. Darst, the rector, of St. James' Church. The Rev. Dr. Berryman Green and the Rev. E. L. Goodwin, D. D., secretary of the diocese.

The Bishop referred in feeling and appropriate terms at the communion service to the Revs. Robt. A. Goodwin, D. D., W. M. Clark, D. D, Frank Stringfellow, James Grammer, D. D and Everard Meade, D. D., who had died during the year past.

The council was called to order for business by the Rev. Berryman Green D. D., president of the standing committee of the diocese who was asked to take the chair by Bishop Gibson. The first order was calling the roll of the clergy and laity by the secretary, Dr. E. L. Goodwin. The number of clergy present being 59 and of the laity, 61.

The chairman announced that the council was ready for business. The Rev. E. L. Goodwin, D. D., was re elected as secretary of the council for the next year, he thanked the council for the continuance of the honor and stated that the Rev. G. McL. Brydon had been appointed by him as assistant secretary in place of the Rev. Dr. Everard Meade, whose familiar presence will be so much missed from our councils.

The Bishop then delivered his annual report, first giving the clerical statistics of the diocese. There have been 36 visitations by Bishop Gibson and 32 by other bishops acting for him during his prolonged illness, and to these bishops he accorded his heartfelt thanks. These bishops were Bishop Gravatt, coadjutor of West Virginia, Bishop Tucker, coadjutor of Southern Virginia, Bishop Garland, cc adjutor of Pa., Bishop Lloyd, Bishop Kinsolving, Brazil, Bishop Harding, c Washington, and Bishop Temple, of N. Texas.

The confirmations in all were 614, 199 being performed by Bishop Gibson himself.

As both chaplains have passed away during this council year, the Revs. Dr Clark and Robt. A. Goodwin, so the Bishop announced that he had appointed the Rev. J. T. Ribble and Kensey J. Hammond as his examining chaplains.

The Bishop then called the earnest attention of the council to the clergy pensions fund, and the address which is to be given on this subject by Mr. Marvell Sayre, an expert who has given much thought to the scientific study of a pension plan. His address will be given on Thursday next.

The Bishop next spoke of the important work of St. Pauls' Church at the University of Virginia now under the Rev. B. D. Tucker. Since the revival of religious life and work a the University. The work has grown most wonderfully there. The work must not be retrenched there. I must go forward and the propose church must be built on the origina plans. The Bishop said that he w surprised at the indifference of the Episcopal alumni of the University t this important matter.

The budget of diocesan appointments including diocesan missions, the contingent fund, education for students for holy orders, etc., has bee very successful during the first yea of its eporations.

Woman's work in the church is now taking an important place and the Bishop made favorable reference to this.

The General Convention of the Episcopal church has at its last mee ing laid down a plan for the new p vincial system. The Bishop himself does not favor this system, as h holds that the diocese is the un of organization in his church Still h advises the council to elect delegat for the organization of the provincial system provided that, as allowe the general convention, the diocese may without prejudice withdraw from the province to which it belongs, a any time.

Bishop Gibson asked for election of coadjutor Bishop at this council. Th election to take place today, commencing after his address, and proceeding at the afternoon session The coadjutor is to take charge of a churches which receive contribution from the Diocesan Missionary Society and other work which may b assigned to them by the Bishop. E the charge of the diocese will rema with the Bishop.

Bishop Gibson expressed his thanks to the council for their generosity in enabling him to take a trip to Euro last summer. He was sure that w of great benefit to him, especially with reference to his ability to recover fro his illness of last winter.

The following committees for thi council were next read by the secretary:

Transports at Galveston Prepared For Transporting Soldiers.

ACTOR DISAPPEARS.

People of Vera Cruz Believe Berystein's Wit Caused Huerta to Order His Execution.

Vera Cruz, May 21.—Berystyn, Mexico's "Matinee Idol," the most popular actor in the republic, has disappeared, following a joke by him about "butchers quarreling" referring to the friction between General Huerta and Aurelliano Urrutia, and the people of the capital are greatly incensed.

They believe that Berystyn has been executed by Huerta's orders, because of his sharp wit, and it is feared there may be a popular uprising unless the actor reappears.

According to advices from Mexico City here today, Berystyn made his allusion to the dictator and his former "chief execution," on Tuesday night, interpolating the joke in his regular lines.

When the actor returned to his hotel after the performance he was seized by Huerta's secret police, it was said.

Washington, May 21.—The United States army and navy waits the word from Niagara Falls. It is today ready for immediate action.

Despite the ban on news at the War Department it was learned today that the entire fleet of transports, fully equipped to care for an entire field army, is in readiness for loading at Galveston. Enough ammunition and supplies to maintain an entire division in the field indefinitely, are on board. It is up to the mediators to determine whether it is all to be used or later to be sent back to Frankford arsenal for storage.

The question of war or peace will be settled within ten days. This is the belief at both the White House and the State Department. The United States commissioners to the mediation conferences have already made public that this Government's irreducible minimum demand is the unconditional retirement of Huerta. If that comes, well and good. Then they will come back here, mediation will be at an end, and it will be up to President Wilson to determine his next aggressive step.

Meanwhile, however, the Administration continues confident that mediation is to succeed.

CORPSE OF NEGRO.

Lynchburg, Va., May 21.—The corpse found in Bedford county, near Abert, last Sunday has been identified. There seems to be no question now but that the dead man was Robert Eldridge, a colored traveling minister, who was a waiter in the hotel at Big Island for three weeks, and who disappeared suddenly last February, Neither is there any question but that the negro was murdered, for a .32 bullet was found in the skull.

What is left of the body measures up to that of the colored minister, who walked into Big Island last February and secured a temporary position as writer in the hotel to help pay expense. He remained there three weeks and then walked away, going in the direction of the spot where the corpse was found. He was known to posses certain literature and letters while in Big Island that corresponded to that found on and near the clothing of the dead man.

Three barges laden with 1,300 tons of sugar from Hawaiian steamships at Panama arrived at Cristobal at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening, after passing through the Panama Canal. The sugar was transferred to the steamships Colon and Oregonian for conveyance to Philadelphia, thus completing the first commercial use of the canal.

MURDER IN NEW YORK.

Man Killed While on His Knees and Engaged in Prayer.

New York, May 21.—On his knees, praying in a group of startled school children, Joseph Laberiola, a Harlem "gunman," met the death Tuesday afternoon for which he had been marked for two years, and on the same spot where two other murders, of which he had been accused by the police, were committed.

The one time that Laberiola, flashily dressed, with oiled hair and many diamonds, had appeared in the streets without a heavily armed bodyguard was at 3 o'clock Tuesday aftrnoon, when he turned the corner of Third avenue into 111th street, just as a public school was dismissing its 2,000 pupils.

That was the moment for which Laberiola's enemies had been waiting tirelessly. Just as he reached the spot where "Tom" Gallo was murdered on March 10, 1912, eight men, surrounded Laberiola. While several of the assassins brushed the school children aside, telling them to keep away or they might get hurt, one man stopped Laberiola and said.

"Your time has come! You're to die for the killing of Tom Gallio and of Sam' Giumpata. Make your peace with your God."

Laberiola knew what that summons meant. He dropped to his knees on the stone sidewalk, never uttering one word of protest or a plea of mercy, and clasped his hands together in front of him as he started to chant a litany.

The man who had been selected to do the actual killing pushed his way through the group, and as Laberiola prayed he sent three bullets into his body.

Laberiola toppled over on the sidewalk dead, his hands still clasped in a suppliant manner. Instead of frightening away the children, the group of assassins had aroused their curiosity, and as the murderer fired the shots half a dozen small boys were edging their way through the circular group. But when they heard the revolver reports and saw the praying man collapse in death they ran screaming.

Panic took possession of the crowded block immediately. Hundreds of children ran screaming in many directions. While women cried out from windows the assassins disappeared into various buildings, and when the first policeman arrived the slain man was alone. Not a man was in sight to be arrested.

Laberiola, better known as "Labby the Lout," had been in trouble with the police many times. He did not work for a living. The police said he owned several white slaves and that he was the partner of a certain saloon keeper who long has been marked for death in the collection of blackmail.

When Tom Gallo was shot and killed by a hidden assassin in 111th street, where Laberiola was killed yesterday, "Labby the Lout" was among those arrested. Although Gallo's friends insisted that Laberiola had fired the shot that killed Gallo the police were unable to obtain sufficient evidence to get an indictment and Laberiola was released. From that day Laberiola was a marked man. He knew he was to be killed, and he employed one, and sometimes two, men to be with him all the time.

RECORD FRUIT CROP.

Chamber of Commerce of U. S Finds General Outlook For Season Is Optimistic.

Washington, May 21—A record fruit crop this year is predicted by the standing committee on statistics and standards of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. In a report based on investigations of trained observers all over the country, it is declared that "the general prospect for a large yield of fruit of all kinds, with the possible exception of peaches, has not been equalled at any time within the decade, save in 1912."

There is the report says, more or less damage reported from nearly all sections to the various fruits, but except in the case of peaches, it is not a matter of much moment. The severe and unusually cold period in the spring is said to be responsible for causing damage to peaches in many States.

ONLY TEN DAYS OF CAMPAIGN

Committee Urge all Who Intend to Contribute to do So at Once.

MAKE SUGGESTIONS.

One Hundred and Sixty Dollars Added Today—Total Sum Has Now Reached $30,352.57.

Only ten days remain of the hospital campaign, which has been going on so successful, and it is hoped that those who desire to aid the committee and assist in this great work, will send in their subscriptions as rapidly as possible. It should be remembered that the subscriptions can be made for any amount payable in any way desired by the donor. Where persons are unable to give large, joint subscriptions can be made up in the various factories and among the employees of railroads and other corporations and send in as an aggregate. If this were undertaken by some patriotic person in each corporation and factory of the city, doubtless a very large sum would be realized and as the wage earners are those most dependent upon the hospital they should take a deep interest in the matter and at least contribute a small sum toward the erection of this much needed building. Some time every one is liable to need a hospital and it would be satisfying to feel that in using it one had been instrumental in assisting in building it. Try to get your subscription in as early as possible.

MORSES' ALLEGED HISTORY.

Roosevelt Said to Have Thwarted Aims of Financier.

Washington, May 21.—The unwritten history of why Charles W. Morse, then in the heydey of his prosperity, failed to get an absolute monopoly on Atlantic coastwise shipping in 1907, was made public today by former President Mellen, of the New Haven.

Only the personal intervention of Theodore Roosevelt, then president, prevented Morse getting the steamship lines of the New Haven system Morse had offered twenty million for its fleet. Mellen wanted to sell, but he came to Washington and consulted Roosevelt. The latter opposed the sale. Mellen told him if he did not sell then he might have to sell later at a lower figure. He feared the government was about to prohibit railroads owning competing steamship lines.

President Roosevelt promised him, Mellen said, that if he turned down the Morse offer he would not be interfered with as long as he, Roosevelt, was president.

Morse was turned down, and when Attorney General Bonaparte filed a Sherman law equity suit late in 1907 no mention was made in the papers of a steamship monopoly.

Mellen said he did not know if the steamship lines were left out of these proceedings because of Roosevelt's promise.

FUGITIVE SURRENDERS.

Refugee Unable to Bear Ordeal of Dodging Officers.

Richmond, Va., May 21—Haunted with the fear of identification and obsessed with the idea that every man he met was a sheriff ready to lay hands upon him, until his nervous condition was rendered pitiable, C. Randall Campbell, an escaped convict, from a road force in Orange county, yesterday walked into the office of Governor Stuart and abruptly announced to Secretary Forward that he wished to surrender. Campbell later went unaccompanied to the penitentiary, where today he once more wears the stripes.

Campbell reached the Governor's office while a representative of a newspaper was talking to Secretary Forward. Without waiting for a lull in the conversation, the man strode up to the secretary's desk and asked in a voice denoting extreme nervousness: "Is this the Governor's office?" On being assured that it was, the escaped convict said: "Governor, my name is Campbell; I'm an escaped convict and I wish to surrender"

On being questioned, Campbell told Governor Stuart that he was sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for felonious assault committed in a bar room row in Bristol, Va., in September, 1912. He hit another patron of the saloon over the head with a whiskey bottle.

Last October, while with a convict road force in Orange county, Campbell made his escape and made his way to Florida, where he spent the winter.

Campbell told Governor Stuart that he thought his return and voluntary surrender merited a pardon, but the Governor assured him that his surrender must be unconditional, although the Governor would consider the matter of clemency.

The young man then asked for stationery, with which he wrote a letter to his mother in Johnson City, Tenn., his tome town, telling her of his return to prison, and then wended his way, unaccompanied to the penitentiary.

Secretary Forward called the penitentiary over the phone and told the authorities to be on the lookout for the man, and within a short while the penitentiary called the governor's office and advised the governor, that Campbell had arrived.

RED MEN MEET IN RICHMOND

MANY IN ATTENDANCE

Great Council Degree of Pocahontas Also Meets in Capital City—Interesting Features.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—The election of officers for the coming year was the principal business transacted yesterday at the opening sessions of the 68th annual meeting of the Great Council of Virginia, Improved Order of Red Men, and Great Council, Degree of Pocahontas both of which began their annual meetings in the Smithdeal Hall. Reports of several committees were heard by both organizations. Business of the session will be concluded this morning with the selection of next year's meeting place and the hearing of the remaining reports.

Delegates to the annual meeting consist of sachems and great sachems, and there was a full attendance at the opening session yesterday. More than seventy-five new members were received into the order, and it is expected that several others will make entrance application today.

Mayor Ainslie was one of the principal speakers. He welcomed the visitors to Richmond in behalf of the city, and expressed the hope that they would again select this city as their place of gathering. Charles I. Phillips welcomed the visiting delegates here on behalf of the local Red Men, and Mrs. Janie Levensohn extended a welcome to the Daughters of Pocahontas. Responses were made by Harry Cuthriell and Mrs. Katherine Miller. The invocation and benediction were read by Rev. L. C Moore. Music was a conspicuous part of the program.

Officers elected for the coming year by the Red Men were as follows: Great Sachem, J. Ben Moore, of Matoaca, great senior sagamore, C. J. Parrot, of Danville; great junior sagamore, George D. Taliaferro, of Reedville; great prophet, Harry Cuthriell, of Portsmouth; great chief of record, Frank H. Couch, of Hampton; great keeper of the wampum, Richard W. Jones, of Richmond. Delegates to the great council of the United States selected were as follows: Harry Cuthriell, of Portsmouth; J. C. Page, of Roanoke; Albert M. Tennis, of Hampton; George W. Whitely, of Newport News, and Frank B. Varney, of Lynchburg.

The Degree of Pocahontas selected the following officers for the next year: Great Pocahontas, Mrs. Laura Canyer, of Chincotetatee Great Winnonah, Mrs. Lydia Chapman, of Winchester; Great Minnehaha, Mrs. Mary Grant, of Portsmouth; Great Prophet, Mrs. Catherine Miller, of Phoebus; Great Keeper of Records, Mrs. D. Last night both of the delegates to the Red Men's meeting and those to the Degree of Pocahontas were entertained at a box party at a local theatre.

Following the close of the business session yesterday a memorial service was held by the Daughters to the memory of the eight members of that order who died during the past year. The service was brief but impressive.

There are about 200 visiting delegates attending the meeting and many from local tribes. The meeting will close with the sessions today.

The Citizens' National bank through its officers will be glad to receive subscriptions from its patrons and friends to the Hospital fund, delivering the same to the committee daily.

Sunday School Turnout Will Not Take Place in June But September

A meeting of the executive committee of the Alexandria Sunday School Association was held last night in the M. E. Church South for the purpose of considering the movement for a street pageant and tableaux to be given by th teachers and scholars of the various Sunday schools of the city.

Several months ago when the pageant and tableaux were determined upon it was decided that the latter part of June would be most propitious for the same, as this is the time when the children take their annual summer holiday, but during the interchange of opinion last night it was thought the latter part of June would not be the proper time, as most of the scholars take summer excursions and remain away from the city until the school commencements. Under these circumstances the effect destined by the turnout would not be lasting, as the young ones would naturally be thinking of other things.

After an interchange of opinion, it was determined by the executive committee to postpone the pageant and tableaux until the latter part of September, after the children shall have resumed their studies, and when the weather is likely to be more pleasant for a turnout. Hence the pageant and tableaux will be given a short time prior to rally day which is celebrated in most of the Sunday schools of the city. It is believed that by the changes the effect will be more lasting.

UNABLE TO VOTE.

City Sergeant Robert H. Cox today posted the list of tax payers who have paid their taxes since December 9th, 1913. In the list are a number of well-known residents who will be unable to vote on the question of state wide prohibition next September because their taxes were not paid prior to November, 1913. Among them are four preachers and two retail liquor dealers.

OIL HOUSE DESTROYED

Spectacular But Short-Lived Blaze on the River Front Last Night

About ten o'clock last night a small house on the river front between Duke and Wolfe streets from which gasoline is furnished motorboats was found to be burning. An alarm was sent in and the fire department was soon upon the scene. The fire had considerable headway before the engines began to send streams upon the burning structure and it was soon completely destroyed.

While the building was wrapped in flames two tanks of gasoline in the place exploded, sending a column of flame high in the air and for a few seconds brilliantly illuminating the river front. The flames rapidly subsided after the explosion and the fire was practically extinguished in a short time.

The firemen managed to save the narrow plank walk leading to the house.

The origin of the fire is unknown. The house was a small frame structure and the tanks which exploded are each said to have contained about fifty gallons of gasoline. It belonged to the Texas Oil Company, and was situated a few yards south of the Emerson Engine Company's plant, or what was at one time the Pioneer Mills.

Surgeons at Bellevue Hospital, New York, while examining Carl Schmidt, who was brought there from a Bowery lodging house Tuesday, discovered in his tattered clothes $3,380 and several bank books showing that he had $50,000 more on deposit. Schmidt, who is 73 years old, had occupied a 15-cent-a-day room for 14 years and was supposed to be hard pressed. Schmidt came to this country 50 years ago from Germany. As if to explain his physical breakdown, he said: "I have worked too hard."

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

KILL FLIES BY THOUSANDS.

Plans for "Giant" Trap Included in New Bulletin of Board of Health.

Richmond, Va., May 21.—The noble art of fly-swatting has received a new boost by the publication of detailed drawings for a giant fly-trap which will deliver the pest in thousand lots, if properly baited and located.

The State Board of Health, which has been working with the city health department of Richmond, in numerous experiments for fly-traps, issues the new drawings in a bulletin which will be distributed during the next few days. The health officers have made a number of these traps and have tested them in various places. In some of the traps, made by the city markets, thousands of flies have been caught daily. In another trap, placed on Broad street near a fruit stand, the State officers landed many of the pests and materially reduced the number in the vicinity.

The Board believes that if these giant traps are made according to its designs and are used in homes and in public places, the fly-crop of the season will be the lowest on record.

STUART AND SENATORSHIP.

Governor Emphatically States he Will Not Oppose Swanson.

Richmond, May 21.—"I am not and will not be a candidate for any office which would in any way take me away from the duties already assumed by me as Governor of Virginia for four years, beginning February 1, 1914."

Such was the statement dictated by Governor Henry C. Stuart yesterday when asked regarding published reports to the effect that he was being mentioned in connection with the United States senatorship in opposition to Senator Claude A. Swanson in 1916.

The Governor got back to the city yesterday morning from Baltimore, where he has been for two or three days on private business. He was in excellent humor and seemed to be in the best of health. He found an immense amount of business demanding his attention and he also faced a large number of visitors who had come to call on him.

The statement of the Governor is very explicit and direct. It will be observed that he says he will not be a candidate for any office during the term for which he was elected Governor. In other words, he will, if nothing prevents, complete his full four years in the office to which he was elected by the people.

His term will expire February 1, 1918. The election of a successor to United States Senator Thomas S. Martin will be held the same year. At that time, and in perfect accord with his statement published above, he could enter the race for the seat which Senator Martin now holds.

At that time he would be in a position to make the race for the United States Senate and would not be hampered by duties as Governor or of any other position. However, nobody has said he will oppose Senator Martin.

His statement above settles one thing: Governor Stuart will not run against Senator Swanson.

FATHER OF 24 IS DEAD.

John J. White, of Fredericksburg, Va., is Survived by Wife and Six Children.

Fredericksburg, Va., May 21.—John J. White, son of the late Madison White, died at his home here Tuesday evening, of pneumonia, after an illness of only one week, aged 56 years. He was a native of the place.

White and his wife were the parents of 24 children, six of whom are still living. Besides his wife and the children, five brothers and one sister survive him.

Captain Richard P. Winslow, of the Ninety-first Coast Artillery Corps, died at Brownsville, Texas, early yesterday of a pistol wound. The army officers' investigation showed that Captain Winslow killed himself. An army surgeon stated that Winslow was mentally deranged.

The Department of Agriculture yesterday began notifying more than 58,000 manufacturers throughout the country that on May 1, 1915, their guarantees filed under the pure food and drugs regulations would be stricken from the files, and that thereafter the serial numbers assigned to them must not be used on the label or package of any food or drug. This action is in accordance with the regulations adopted recently, which abolished the use of the guarantee legend and serial number on foods and drugs.

A squad of five patrolmen Tuesday night arrested 22 vagrants who had camped in the outskirts of Fort Wayne, Ind., branded each by clipping a furrow through his hair, ordered them out of town and as they ran "paddled" each with a barrel stave. The vagrants were told that if captured before the clipped hair grew out they would be sent to the stone pile for 100 days.

WELCOMES MERCHANTS.

President Samuel Cohen Delivers Address Which is Ordered Printed.

Richmond, May 21.—A forceful address by its president, Samuel Cohen, of Richmond, featured the opening session of the tenth annual convention of the Retail Merchants' Association of Virginia in the Jefferson Hotel auditorium yesterday morning. So well was the address received that a motion was unanimously carried ordering it published in pamphlet form for distribution among the delegates. Copies will also be sent to the various local organizations throughout Virginia affiliated with the State Association.

President Cohen made numerous recommendations in his address, chief among them being the keeping of a representative at the capitol during the sessions of the general assembly to be on the alert for legislation harmful to retail merchants, efforts to secure the repeal of an amendment to the national bankruptcy law and that the fight against premiums and trading stamps be taken up with renewed vigor.

To the president's mind there is no more important work for the association than that of looking after legislation affecting its interests. He pointed to the fact that farmers, manufacturers and labor unions were organized for their own protection and saw no reason why the retail merchants should not co-operate for their mutual protection. He urged that financial provision be made to continue this work.

Approximately 150 accredited delegates were in their seats when President Cohen rapped order.

The convention was opened with prayer by the Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, pastor of the Church of the Covenant. Addresses of welcome were made by Mayor George Ainslie and C. T. Norman, president of the Richmond Retail Merchants' Association. The response was made by M. M. Ramsay, of Roanoke, vice-president of the association.

Succumbs in Hospital to Self-Inflicted Wound.

Richmond, May 21.—John Evans, 75 years old, who shot himself last week in his residence, Fifth avenue and Columbia street, Cottage Place, died at 8:45 o'clock Tuesday night in King's Daughters' Hospital, where he was admitted shortly after the shooting.

His case was regarded as hopeless from the first. The bullet, fired from a pistol, penetrated his temple and lodged at the base of the brain. Mr. Evans sank gradually from the time he was admitted to the hospital.

He was formerly employed in the Seaboard Air Line Railway shops. A widow survives him.

D. D. D. In Hospitals; Standard Skin Cure

How many hospital patients, suffering the frightful itch, the raw scorching pain of skin disease, have been soothed to sleep by a soothing fluid washed in by the nurse's hands?

That fluid is the famous D. D. D. prescription for eczema.

THE SUPERVISING NURSE of one of our prominent Catholic institutions (name of nurse and institute on application), writes regarding a patient. "The disease had eaten her eyebrows away. Her nose and lips had become disfigured. Since the use of D. D. D. her eyebrows are growing, her nose and face have assumed their natural expression."

How many eczema sufferers are paying their doctors for regular treatment and are being treated with this same soothing, healing fluid?

DR. GEO. T. RICHARDSON frankly writes "D. D. D. is superior to anything I have ever found. Soft and soothing, yet a powerful agent."

To do the work, D. D. D. Prescription must be applied according to directions given in the pamphlet around every bottle. Follow these directions—and see!

And it certainly takes away the itch at once—the moment the liquid is applied. The skin is soothed—calmed—so thoroughly refreshed—delightfully cooled.

All druggists of standing have the famous specific as well as the efficient D. D. D. Skin Soap.

But we are so confident of the merits of this prescription that we will refund the purchase price of the first full size bottle, if it fails to reach your case. You alone are to judge.

WHOLESALE MASSACRES.

Stories of wholesale massacres in Mexico still come in, and the details are revolting. Human beings are taken out and destroyed as canines during dog days or rats in traps. Human life is no more regarded than that of animals at slaughter houses, and blood continues to flow in all sections of the unhappy country.

When France lost her reason at a time when the people supposed they had entered "the age of reason," other European countries were compelled, while the guillotine was being kept busy, to interfere in the interests of humanity.

It is hard to understand that a country like Mexico, whose civilization may, for ought we know to the contrary, be synchronous with that of Egypt, should have made so little progress in the twentieth century. The people seem to be in a worse state than they were in the days of Cortez. Internal disturbances are as indigenous to the country as yellow fever, and wars and rumors of war are ever heard.

It is officially stated that General Ozorno, of the federal army, and his entire staff of 32 officers were captured by Villa at Zertuche, 15 miles from Saltillo, and that all were immediately put to death.

Expecting to be treated as prisoners of war under civilized rules of warfare, the federal commander, it is said, surrendered with his staff. He and his officers were killed on the field as soon as they had been made prisoners.

There was captured also a general and 32 officials at Zertuche who composed his staff. All were executed immediately. All Spaniards in Mexico City are to be expelled from the city and from Mexico when Pancho Villa takes the capital, and those who have been active in aiding Huerta are to be put to death. Villa has a list of all Spaniards in Mexico City who have been active in assisting Huerta, and each is marked for death.

EXEMPTION OF CHURCH PROPERTY.

Senator Gallinger, who advocates the free passage of American coastwise vessels through the Panama Canal, in a speech Tuesday called attention to the fact that twenty-five millions dollars' worth of church property in Washington is exempted from taxation.

At long intervals representative men have taken issue with lawmakers who think all property used as places for public worship should be exempted from taxation, and they have asserted that the best building lots in every city are secured by church congregations for edifices and the taxes upon millions of dollars' worth of real estate are thus kept out of the public treasury. Were the churches not on these sites palatial residences would undoubtedly be built thereon and become part of the taxable property of states and cities.

The first message sent to Congress by President Grant in 1869 called attention to the existing order of things, and he urged upon Congress the taxing of all churches, parsonages or other buildings used by churches and under existing laws not listed for taxation. He said that if congregations were able to erect massive and costly structures, they should expect to pay their proportion of taxes for the support of the government.

PROGRESS OF DIPLOMACY.

Attempts to Formulate Peace Between Representatives.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., May 21—With the arrival of Eduard Suarez, Ambassador from Chile, the A. B. C. mediators were today prepared to take up in earnest the task of bringing the American and Mexican representatives together on a plan for peace in Mexico

Ambassador Suarez arrived shortly after midnight. Though a part of yesterday he was lost, as far as the mediators here were concerned, and it appears that the ambassodor's diversion to continuous riding on trains was mainly responsible for his delay. Ambassador Da Gama jocularly declared that he had hardly expected Suarez here on time. The Chilean representative believes in doing his traveling at easy stages, and on arriving at the Clinton Hotel declared that he was mighty glad he was off the train and that he would not have to board another one for some time.

All intial ceremonies over and the delegates of the two countries having met about the conference table for the first time, the strain which was evident among the Mexican and American representatives, as well as the A. B. C. Mediators, appeared to have worn off to a great extent today. Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann held an extended conference with the mediators last night.

Stiffe ceremony is giving away, in a degree, to a hearty greeting as man to man, but in official connections all precedents of diplomacy are carefu observed

The next step along the road toward peace had not been formally decided upon today, but it was expected that the Mexican delegates would meet wth the mediators. In accordance with the rules of procedure which were adopted, full conferences will be held only upon the request of the delegates, for an expression of the views, for the presentaton of a basis of settlement, or for acceptance or rejection of proposals.

Justice Lamar and Judge Lehmann would comment in no way as to the session held last night. When they will again sit with the mediators is not known. Judge Lehmann declared, but added that a conference could be arrangned in a few moments at any time.

At a Corporation Court of the City of Alexandria, Va., continued and held at the Courthouse of said city on Monday, April 27, 1914. Present, Hon. Louis C. Barley, Judge.

"A pipeful of Tuxedo puts new life into me. The mildest and purest tobacco grown."

GEORGE E. PHILLIPS
Mayor of Covington, Kentucky
"A good pipe, and Tuxedo to fill it, and I'm satisfied. The tobacco in the little green tin has no rival as far as I am concerned."

You Smoke a "Better" Tobacco —Why Not Smoke The Best?

THE tobacco you now smoke you consider "better tobacco than you ever smoked before." Naturally, you kept trying until you found a "better" one.

But it stands to reason that since there is a difference in tobaccos, you may be missing still greater pleasure in a still better smoke —in the BEST smoke, in fact.

Tuxedo is the best smoke because no better tobacco leaf grows, and no process of treating tobacco leaf equals the original "Tuxedo Process."

Tuxedo

The Perfect Tobacco for Pipe and Cigarette

We know that Tuxedo is made of the BEST tobacco—rich, mellow, perfectly aged Kentucky Burley. None better can be bought, because none better is grown.

It is treated by the famous original "Tuxedo Process" for removing the sting and bite of the natural vegetable oils.

Tuxedo was born in 1904. Its first imitator appeared two years later. Since then a host of imitations have sprung up.

No other tobacco can give the unique pleasure of Tuxedo because no other maker has yet been able to equal the Tuxedo quality.

NEWS OF THE DAY

On the first day after his return from South America Theodore Roosevelt got back into touch with the political situation and last night plans were well under way at Oyster Bay for the Progressive campaign of 1914. A large part of the day Colonel Roosevelt spent in conference with George W. Perkins, of New York, chairman of the executive committee of the Progressive National Committee. Mr. Perkins has been steadily at work since the 1912 campaign in organizing the new party in all sections of the country and his mission to Oyster Bay was to acquaint the former President with present day conditions in the field of politics. Roosevelt would not discuss his long talk wtih Mr. Perkins.

Because members of the Epworth Methodist Church at Bartlesville, Okla., failed to pay him back salary, amounting to $40, the Rev. H. C. Breese, pastor, sold the church building Monday. Tuesday a force of workmen prepared to remove the building. In ten minutes a crowd surrounded the workmen, and a free-for all fight soon was in progress. A riot call brought Sheriff Jordan and several deputies, who restored order, and placed guards around the building. Mr. Breese asserts he has received only $16 in salary since last November.

A dispatch received at Juarez, yesterday by Rafael Musquiz, constitutionalist consul, stated that the town of Musquiz, Coahuila, which is close to the present zone of battle, was destroyed Tuesday by a cyclone. Sixty persons were killed. Property damage will amount to several hundred thousand dollars. The town has 8,000 inhabitants.

Three hundred men and women, foreigners, surrounded and stoned the house of Mrs. Nichola Grill, widow of a private banker, in Waverly street, Yonkers, N. Y., yesterday, and waving their bankbooks demanded vociferously that their deposits in her husband's bank be returned to them. The money has been tied up by litigation since the banker's death, a year ago. The bank is closed. Mrs. Grill summoned the police, who dispersed the mob. The funds on deposit amount to about $70,000, and represent the savings of hundreds of the foreigners.

Princess Mary, daughter of King George V and Queen Mary, was recently arrested as a militant suffragette and detained a prisoner for fifteen minutes before her declaration that she was England's princess royal was accepted. Every effort has been made to keep the fact secret. Queen Mary is furious over it. Her horror of militant women is well known. King George is said to have laughed at his daughter's awkward experience and declared it a good joke. Princess Mary, after the first shock of her plight had worn off, was able to laugh at it, too.

President Wilson will veto the Clayton anti-trust bill if it reaches him with a provision exempting labor from prosecution under the Sherman act. Notice to this effect has been served on Representative Lewis, of Maryland, spokesman of organized labor in the House. The President's attitude toward the exemption clause was made known to Mr. Lewis by Representatives Clayton, Carlin, and Floyd, members of the subcommittee that framed the Clayton bill.

Oscar Dane was held responsible yesterday by the police, when they summoned him as booking agent, who had supplied the dancer who is said to have appeared in a single strand of small beads at a cabaret given by a hardware men's convention. Dane told Prosecuting Attorney Wilson he believed the girl wore something more than beads, but he was not sure. Anyway, since the newspaper accounts agreed that this was the extent of the dancer's attire, he promised that he would be more careful in the future in booking performers, and would prescribe something more than single strands of beads for costumes. Upon this promise he was released.

August of this year has been chosen by Gustave Hamel, the British aviator, to make his attempt to fly across the Atlantic. The aeroplane in which the flight is to be made is now under construction. It is to be driven by an engine of 200 horsepower. The aeroplane will carry 500 gallons of petrol and oil. Hamel expects to start from the American side.

Owes His Life to This Lung Remedy

If you neglect a continued cough or cold you are in constant danger of contracting serious Lung Trouble. The cough or cold which does not yield to ordinary treatment should be a warning to you and preventive measures should be taken as soon as possible. In many cases Eckman's Alterative, a remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, has brought permanent recovery. Read this:

Catherine Ave. and Ascot Place,
Queens Court, L. I., N. Y.

"Gentlemen: In the year 1908 I was taken with a heavy cold and a nasty short cough. I went to several doctors, who gave me a lot of medicine. Finally, I went to a specialist, who gave me creosote that made me sick of all kinds of food; consequently a setback in health. I then went to the Catskills, and seemed to get better, but the cough still kept on. I stayed there for one year, and then went to a farm near Jersey City, a very sick man. About the time of my return, my brother recommended Eckman's Alterative to me very highly. It is now nearly two years since I first took it. I am now well, and I dare say that I would have been buried long ago if it had not been for Eckman's Alterative."

(Affidavit). JOSEPH J. TROESCHER.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchia' Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

HUERTA "WILL STICK,"

Follows Tactics of Late Edwin H. Stanton.

Mexico City, May 21.—Provisional President Huerta, in the course of an interview said:

"The Mexican peace delegates have no instructions to offer my resignation at the conference at Niagara Falls."

The president spoke with energy, standing erect, and emphasized his words with a characteristic gesture.

Prior to this the acting minister for foreign affairs, Esteva Ruiz, had declared that the Mexican representatives had been given "ample powers" by the government to deal with everything that may be discussed at the peace conference with the object of solving the international difficulty.

Senator Bankhead and Representative Underwood, of Alabama, suggested to President Wilson that he make W. P. Harding, of Birmingham, governor of the Federal Reserve Board. Mr. Harding has been designated as a member of the board, but since Richard Olney, of Massachusetts, declined the governorship, the President has been carefully considering available men for the important place.
